Freedom Credit Union Celebrates the Season of Giving

(Warminster, PA – December 20, 2016). Freedom Credit Union celebrated the season of giving with an annual gift drive and a contribution to a local food pantry.

Freedom employees participated in the Salvation Army Adopt-an-Angel program, which provides new clothing, toys and gifts for children. Each child was represented by a gift tag that included basic information - their first name, age, gender, and a gift wish. Freedom employees purchased gifts for children based on the information on the tag. Gifts were collected at the Operations Center and all of the branch locations.

Freedom Credit Union also hosted Pictures with Santa the first two Saturdays in December. Members and their families came to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Claus at the Warminster and Drummond Road Branch locations. In honor of Santa's visit Freedom donated $1,500 to the food pantry at St. John's Lutheran Church.
